Government "Warning" Notice:
In accordance with Sections 124B(1) and 133CB(1) of the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (as amended) and Regulations 28XX, 2012 made under that Act, the Credit Provider expects all intending or potential consumers to read this sign before making an offer, or accepting an offer, to enter into a credit contract with the company. This sign is available at the front of all relevant business premises, adjacent to where you speak to a company representative about a loan, as well as on the company's website.

Bank Statements:
For all Small Amount Credit Contracts in accordance with Sections 117(1A) and 130(1)(a) of the National Credit Protection Act 2009 (as amended), the Credit Provider is required to review consumer bank statements, or a comprehensive report on such statements, covering all bank or similar institution account transactions that reflect personal income receipt and/or expenditure, over at least the last 90 days. Please arrange for these to be available in print or electronic form.

Privacy:
Under the 2012 amendments to Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988, including Sections 6N, 18E and 21C, the credit provider is encouraged to collect more information concerning consumers, their credit history and current circumstances than ever before. If you proceed with your loan application, carefully read the detail in the Privacy Agreement supplied and in the company's Credit Information (Privacy) Management Policy available on the Company's web site, or in hard copy on request..

General Advice:
Please DO NOT sign your credit contract until you have carefully read the Government Warning sign and every document provided by Cash Stop, you have asked every question that has come into your mind and you have received satisfactory answers, and you completely understand your credit contract. Once you sign the credit contract it is legally binding on you and you must repay as you have agreed.
